Margaret Simonds Bursary

This Bursary honours the memory of Margaret Simonds and we give recognition to her visionary work in the adult educational field.

The late Margaret Simonds was the founder of On Track Learning in the late 1980s and she established a network of local literacy coordinators around the region to provide volunteer tutors to literacy students.

Margaret possessed the following qualities and attributes: Faith, Leadership, Innovation, Inner strength, Vision, Perseverance, Communication, Lateral thinking, Humour and Enterprise.

The recipient of this bursary will possess and demonstrate these attributes and qualities. A Margaret Simonds bursary will cover tuition fees to the value of $1000 for a student enrolled at St Brigid's for the 2024 school year. These bursaries are available to any currently enrolled student from Year 7 through to Year 11 in 2023.

Please note that students who have received this bursary within the last three years are ineligible to apply.

The criteria for the award of these bursaries are:

1. Qualities associated with Margaret Simonds
2. Contribution to the College Community (academic, spiritual, cultural, sporting)
3. Leadership exercised within the College community
4. Contribution to the wider community

Application form is below and available from the Front Office.
